FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Washington, Friday Evening, June 25. Stock circles seem sanguine that the great Wall-street leaders will shortly make some move that will change the aspect of the stock market Present operations are interpreted as being in-dicative of a campaign in the bull interest, with its attendant activity. The heavy disbursements to be made on the lst proximo for interest and dividends will probably offer sufficient inducements for the bringing into action of the suspended energies and latent powers of Wall street. The local market will me doubt improve with this change which is to be brought about. change which is to be brought about.
